Early 20th Century Setting

At the Museums of Western Colorado's Cross Orchards Historic Site, you have the opportunity to step back in time. Stroll around the beautiful grounds and experience historic buildings, railroad cars and vintage equipment. The large 1890s built barn/packing shed and bunkhouse are listed on the National Register of Historic Place.

We have a quaint bridal suite for one side of the bridal party to relax and get ready in while an additional private room allows space for the other half of the bridal party to get ready too. The packing floor of the barn is 2,400 square feet alone and has additional space in the loading porch area and a beautiful lawn and Gazebo for the wedding ceremony. There are modern restrooms by the silo for your guests, and in each of the rooms for the bridal party.

Experience the charm of Cross Orchards. Schedule a tour to see the grounds and begin planning your special day.
