

2022 Site Intern

Reports to: Site Curator
Site: Cross Orchards

Position Overview

This intern reports to the Site Curator and is responsible for executing tasks onsite at Cross Orchards. These tasks may include assisting in processing collections, data input into collections database, conducting research, repetitive physical tasks, environmental improvement projects, and other duties as assigned.

This position offers a unique perspective at modern museum work, mixing everyday museum standards with the challenge of working an orchard.

Position Responsibilities

- Perform basic preservation tasks as assigned by supervisor
- Assist in care of machinery and equipment
- Assist in care of land and buildings
- Assist in tending the orchard
- Weekly social media content creation
- Other responsibilities as assigned

Requirements for the Position

- Minimum of 10 hours per week
- Able to adapt to new situations and tasks
- Ability to initiate and perform tasks with limited supervision
- Ability to perform physical and demanding tasks
- Mechanical aptitude is desirable
- Strong verbal and written skills
- Strong comprehensive skills and ability to follow directions
- Must pass a background check
- Must have reliable transportation

Physical Requirements

- Constantly works in outdoor weather conditions.
- Lifting heavy and/or oversized objects repeatedly.
- Climbing ladders and stairs
- Navigating uneven grounds